Coming to the 8th Leg of the Ski to Sea Race on Sunday? The best street party of the year in Bellingham? The Fairhaven Festival? Avoid the hassle trying to park your car near Fairhaven. For the 8th year, you can park free at Western Washington University and take the shuttle right to the edge of the festival in Fairhaven - to 12th Street in front of the Big Fat Fish Co. restaurant.

It is a 4 minute bus ride to Fairhaven. Use the C parking lot on Bill McDonald Parkway near the Recreation Center. Just follow the signs. Buses start running at 11 am and the last bus leaves Fairhaven at 8 pm.

NEW this year. A second shuttle runs to downtown Bellingham and to Zuanich Point where the kayaks depart from. It also stops in front of the Big Fish restaurant. And that one ticket is good on that bus also. This is in cooperation with the Ski to Sea race organizers. Shuttles that work. And allow you to enjoy the fun. One ticket is good for all buses.

Tickets are on sale now at Village Books - and will be on sale at the bus stops at Western, Fairhaven and Boundary Bay on Sunday. See you at the Festival on Sunday.
