

2008 - It All Ends In Fairhaven – Sunday, May 25th

Dear Non-Profit,

Upon every “Ski to Sea” the non-profit organization, The Old Fairhaven Association, hosts the “It All Ends In Fairhaven” festival. The festival draws over 30,000 patrons rain or shine. For the past four years many of you have joined us in the park and the presence of local non-profits has really rounded out the other festival venues which include 90 retail and food vendors, free live music, children’s events, and a beer garden.

INVITATION:

This year we would like to offer spaces in the park to non-profit organizations for only $20.00 each. The Fairhaven Village Green Park (located behind the Colophon Café) offers 21 stalls for vendors.

BOOTH SPECIFICS:

Each 9’ x 9’ stall is covered by a glass and wood pergola structure. The stalls surround a vibrant green area. If you have further questions about the stalls I encourage you to swing by the park.

BOOTH REQUIREMENTS:

All of the stalls do not have benches so you will need to provide your own table(s), chair(s), and weather protection (such as tarps) for the sides and/or back of your booth.

BOOTH THEMES:

For the most part we do not have restrictions on booth theme. In the past non-profit organizations have done a variety of things: raffles, t-shirt sales, informational, demonstrational, and activities.

FOOD:

Due to health codes, food for the most part cannot be sold.

POLITICS AND RELIGION:

A quick note about political and religious activities: the festival booth spaces are not a forum for either. However if your religious group would like to do some sort of a fundraiser that does not promote specific religious activities you are more than welcome. For example, in a past festival a church group raffled off a handmade quilt.

A SIDE NOTE:

We have received a good deal of positive feedback from non-profit vendors and festival patrons alike. There has been in the past some disappointment that the non-profit section is not located more closely to the center musical stage. Unfortunately for the small fee of $20.00 we just barely cover the park rental fee. The spaces along 11th street pay for all the expenses we incur putting on the festival. I know as fellow non-profits you understand the difficulties of expenses and budgeting. Remember you are always welcome to purchase a space along 11th street at regular retail vendor price of $178.00.

CONTACT:

If you have interest in participating in this year’s festival or just have a question please do not hesitate to contact me. The quickest response is via email, but I typically can return phone calls within a couple of days in the evening or on Saturday’s. I look forward to hearing from you.
